Archiving: All rolls are cut and stored in See-through print-file plastic sleeves.

Digital Contact: Full contact scans are made on our Epson V750 flatbed scanner through the print-file sleeves. A general colour correction is made. Images may have some remaining dust.

Scanning process: Full roll scans are made on an Epson V750 flatbed scanner using digital ice for dust removal and auto colour and tones are applied without clipping information. Images are stored in RGB 16 bit files

Stand developing: Our process of stand developing is made by diluting Rodinal developer and stretching the time to over an hour in a semi stand process. The process generally brings detail out of the shadows and highlights as well as increases the film latitude slightly allowing changing iso within the same roll. The process also gives more grainy films and roughness to the look at times.

Preview JPG: Scanned on our flat bed Epson V750 Pro at resolution high enough to preview on a monitor as well as small work prints.

Imacon 3F(RAW): Scanned on our Imacon 646 as a 3F file. 3F files are the closest you get to a digital negative archive. The files store the entire reading of the scanner sensor without clipping or changing any information. This makes it possible to start over from the original scan make any adjustments much like a camera raw file. A free flexcolor app is used and included in the zip with images. These files are not colour corrected or retouched dust and scratches.

Imacon FT(Fine tuned): Scans are made by our specialist and tuned for colour and tones properly before exported to tiffs. With experience in retouching for over 20 years the files will be colour corrected, dusted and retouched to as close of a final image as possible. Clients may give directions, examples and even proofs of the same image to match if needed.

Optical resolution: The full optical resolution for an Imacon 646 for 35mm film is around 6400 and for 120mm film is around 3200.

6 month auto renewal

Terms and Conditions.

By signing up online you must attest that you understand and agree to the following. We ask all Patrons to understand that it is their responsibility to remember, review and meet our contractual agreements. We must also state firmly that no exceptions or conditions outside this contract can be negotiated or made in order treat all Patrons alike. Failure to meet contract conditions may constitute for early termination and an invoicing for past discounts.

Contract Renewal and Cancellation

Our contract period are automatically renewed every six months and can be canceled with a two months notice. Notices must be done in a legally accepted written form. Such as letter or email.

Rental and Equipment Liability

Each client is fully liable for all equipment used during their rented time slots and must check and report any issues with equipment at the beginning of their time slot. Repairs or replacements must be payed promptly and may be redeemable if covered by our or their insurance.

Payment and Fees.

All Patrons must sign up using our Online automated system or show a proof of an automatic SEPA transaction set up on their end.

Self service and discounts

To keep our low prices we ask you to be as independent as possible when working. Alternatively for a better grasp of our tools we do offer multiple workshops including one-on-one sessions. Please ask us for what our upcoming options are.

Mandatory Orientation Workshops

For some of our more delicate machines we now require a 20e orientation workshop in order to avoid damages and further delays for other Patrons. The current machines that require these workshops are (Imacon 646 & Jobo cpp2 color processor). Members who can demonstrate prior experience or workshops with those machines are exempt. Price is for each workshop not both together.

Booking time slots

Time slots are booked online or at a first come first serve basis. You are encouraged to plan and book 2 days in advance or more. Booking online is blocked starting 12 hours before sessions and cancellations must be made at least 48 hours before sessions.

Lab Behavior

Our lab functionality depends on mutual respect and care for how each workspace or machine is left for the next member. So special care is needed in returning items to their original location after use, keeping communal gloves or other materials in places of origin and clean. This also includes scanner holders as well as washing up after film or paper processing and placing in the correct drying cabinets.

Instagram and web store

We have a growing and lively curated Instagram feed that we include all our Patrons as well as selected people from the Kollektiv. We are also working on a curated Online print web-store which Patrons and Crit member are welcome to sell their work on with a 30% commission. The web store is coming soon.

Shows and Zine

Our collective group shows and zine will be all under the decision process of the individual curators from the collective or our guest curators. While some guest artists may sometimes be featured in the gallery, our main collective shows will be featuring our weekly crits attendees. Any works and zines sold in our store or during our events have a 30% commission for the space.

Workshops

We will be working on some in-depth practice and conceptual workshops which other members are also encouraged to offer. For member workshops a case to case basis may require a commission percentage depending on the equipment or rooms needed. Generally a 30% commission is taken.

*We outsource our online booking and have no control over the stability of the site. When glitches arise we contact them and wait for results. Booking through email, phone or in person is always available.

About Us

FK-Kollektiv started as a weekly critique session open to anyone who wants to show photographs, offer insights or just come and observe with interest. It enticed professional photographers who want to explore new projects to amateurs to those who have an interest not much experience. With our photographic studio artists can develop, scan, and print we give photographers the opportunity to create affordable material works. The mixture of people is enlightening; pushing members to follow on with their work, not feeling isolated as an artist and also building confidence to go further. FK-kollektiv has become a network for the emergence of themes reflected within photography, sculpture, installation, performance, workshop. Building collaborations, reactions and conversations.

We are an organically grown sphere that supports and breeds non-commercial goals and artistic experiments. We engage in all practices with the knowledge that art can and should be progressive to question the status quo and allow for new ways of thinking. We are intersectionally-feminist, anti-racist, and queer.

FK-Kollektiv has a growing service and self service lab that is dedicated to providing professional and high quality equipment to a variety of artists and professionals at a very affordable rate. This rate is supported by a growing membership of patrons and donors as well as funds made from its services.

Why us?

FK-Kollektiv is a space for collaborative learning; for the exchange of ideas and skills supporting personal, artistic, professional growth. It is also an exhibition platform which allows for playful, radical experimentation and exploration.

We are an interdisciplinary multitude of artists coming from varying countries, cultures, academic, creative and practical backgrounds, each bringing in their perspective into the one or all of the platforms we offer.

The artwork presented has ranged from immersive performance pieces, installation, digital explorations as well as photography. We encourage collective works which are open to submission, ideas pooling, collaboration and/or audience participation.

Support us...

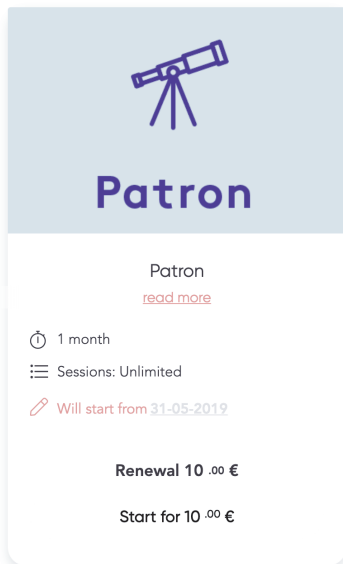

Become a Patron member and support our growth for as low as 12€/Month. Our monthly fees continue to help us provide fair and affordable prices to emerging artists. We in return give you the benefits that some of our monthly members gain such as lower printing prices and other services. You also then get a 30% discount on all of our hourly rental facilities including the lighting studio and our Imacon hasselblad scanners.

With your support we can continue to close our budget gaps with the constantly growing rent prices as well as servicing and maintenance.
